Playful textiles

Against a palette of stone and slate, nothing works better than a bold, hip accessory. Sonia Rykiel's new collection will provide all the basics.

The bronze age

Kamini Ezralow's bronze collection, produced in collaboration with Italian firm Orsi, takes its inspiration from the elegance of Art Deco, redefined for the modern home.

Upcycled luxe

&tradition's Trash Me lamp feeds into this year's obsession with transient design, pushing paper products to the fore. This loveable light is made from pulp spread over a mold and left to dry.
